Hilary Till / GCARD Updates

■ GCARD

After the Summer 2022 issue is launched, we will have published 13 Digest issues, covering diverse topics from Agriculture to Crypto-assets through to Weather Risk;

We have disseminated 8 Newsletters on JPMCC and GCARD activities and organically grown a subscriber list of 1496 subscribers along with building 1598 LinkedIn followers.

We welcomed to the GCARD Editorial Advisory Board: Dr. Jennifer Considine, KAPSARC (KSA); Dr. Adrian Fernandez-Perez, Auckland University of Technology (NZ); and David Fyfe, Argus Media (U.K.)

■ External Outreach

On behalf of the JPMCC, Hilary Till is presenting on “OPEC Spare Capacity and Oil Prices” on June 21, 2022 at the Commodity and Energy Markets Association (CEMA) conference in Chicago, which is being hosted by the University of Illinois.

Till had previously presented on this topic at an end-of-December-2021 virtual workshop sponsored by KAPSARC (KSA) and the Oxford Institute for Energy Studies (U.K.) Her presentation will be included in a KAPSARC Workshop Brief.

In addition, Till co-authored a chapter on “Big Data, Black Holes, and Tapping the Value of Future Price Data” in the forthcoming book, “Research Agenda for Energy Politics.”
